

AARON WALLS

Aaron Walls serves as the Varsity Head Coach for Apollo High School in Glendale, Arizona.

Throughout most of his 18 years coaching football in the Phoenix area, he's specialized in offensive line skill building.

He completed his collegiate career at Northern Arizona University as a Tight End from 2001-2005. He was then an assistant coach focusing on the varsity offensive line for 10 years at Cactus High School where he was an integral part of two State Championship teams. Coach Walls then was a Varsity offensive line coach at Apollo High for four years before taking over the program in 2019.

He has two children, Colton (13) and Adelynn (10), and a beautiful and supportive wife, Lindsay.

ALL ALASKA FOOTBALL CAMP